Civil Action No.
2:06cv766-MHT

DEFENDANT'S FIRST MOTION IN LIMINE

COMES NOW the Defendant, Richard M. Dorsey, and hereby moves the Court to prohibit the Plaintiff, her attorney, or any witnesses from introducing by way of testimony or documentary evidence, information about the following subject:

Any evidence relating to or any opinion as to the value of the assets of I-65 Properties, Inc. The parties have testified by deposition that they did not know the value and no witness has been identified that would possess that information.

To allow such evidence would only serve to prejudice the Defendants. It would also cause a mini trial on claims not advanced by the Plaintiff and which are immaterial and irrelevant to the Plaintiff's claims, or which have been dismissed by the Court. Any probative value of this evidence is substantially outweighed by its prejudicial effect. Fed. R. Evid. 401, 402 and 403; Hapring v. Continental Oil Company, 28 F.2d 406, 410 (5th Circ. 1980) (excluding evidence that unduly prolongs the trial).

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,
